What is the Academy Veteran Impact Fund

The Academy Veteran Impact ETF (Ticker: VETZ) is the first publicly traded ETF to primarily invest in housing and small business loans to U.S. service members, military veterans, their survivors, and veteran-owned businesses. At least 80% of the underlying assets will be loans to veterans, service members, or their families.

Why VETZ

- Facilitates the flow of capital to veterans, resulting in lower borrowing costs for veterans and their families.
- Creation of additional job opportunities for veterans at Academy to support this initiative.
- A portion of the management fee will be donated to veteran and military-related charities.
- Seeking market-based returns, with low-risk government-backed securities while delivering impact.

Seeking Market-Based Returns, and Low Risk

The primary underlying assets of the fund are mortgage-backed securities for veterans, active-duty service members, and their survivors. These MBS pools are guaranteed by government-sponsored enterprises¹, such as Ginnie Mae, Fannie Mae, and Freddie Mac. The Fund also invests in government agency pools of small business loans guaranteed by the Small Business Association.
